AMEND Senate Bill No. 297*

House Bill No. 709

By deleting from the amendatory language of Section 1(h) the words "promptly and".

AND FURTHER AMEND By adding the following language to the end of the amendatory language of Section 1(h):

If the person fails to assert the privilege against self-incrimination such person may raise this issue later but will not be entitled to immunity from prosecution.

AND FURTHER AMEND By deleting Section 1(j) in its entirety and substituting instead the following:

(j) If any person without cause refuses to produce the requested materials within the time and manner designated for compliance by the issuing judge, the district attorney may file a motion for civil contempt with the court with such motion and show cause order being served upon the person. Such order shall designate a time and place for a hearing on the merits. If at the hearing the court finds that the person has willfully refused to produce the requested materials, the court may find that the person is in civil contempt and may assess sanctions accordingly including incarcerating the person with or without bond being set until compliance with the subpoena is satisfied. If the person fails to appear for such hearing, the court may issue a writ of attachment for said person.
